

Jenny: When and where were you born, grandma?

Grandma: In 1939, in a farmhouse in the North of England.

Jenny: How was your life in the farmhouse?

Grandma: Quite difficult but simple, my sweetheart. I shared a room with my three sisters. The toilets were outside in the farmyard. We had no bathroom. We used to have a bath once a week in the kitchen. We used to help mum with domestic chores and tidy our room every day.

Jenny: What did you use to eat in those days?

Grandma: Porridge at breakfast. And Yorkshire pudding with roast beef on Sundays. We also had cookies with the afternoon tea. The family used to gather around the table.

Jenny: What did you use to wear back then?

Grandma: We used to wear quite formal clothes, such as long dresses and blouses, shawls, headscarves and wooden clogs for farm work

Jenny: Did you have fun, grandma? What games did you use to play in those days?

Grandma: Girls used to play with rag dolls, hide-and-seek, hopscotch and skipping rope. Well, life is not what it used to be. Times change and will always do, my little darling.
