

FIRST ENGLISH EXAM

Text:

Hi, my name is Elizabeth. I was born in 1939, in the North of England. My dad was not so rich to build his own company. Instead, he worked on the farm that he inherited from his father. We lived in this small farmhouse where I shared the same room with my three sisters. From my young age I always helped my mother with the housework; I used to tidy our room and clean it, and I used to prepare lunch before my father came back from work. My dad raised cows and sheep and I remember when I was six, I sometimes milked the cows. At mealtime, we always gathered around the table and dad was always served first. We were not permitted to talk with full mouths. Our clothes were not casual like today; we used to wear long dresses. In our free time, we used to play with ragdolls.
